No. 20 -00392

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Turkey and has the honor to convey the following message and request:

The COVID-19 pandemic is an unprecedented public health crisis. We would like to express condolences to those that have become ill or died in your country and around the world.

The United States, like many other countries, is dealing with a historic surge in patients seeking care for COVID-19 – in addition to demands for care for unrelated, life-threatening health conditions. No country can fight COVID-19 alone. We must coordinate and collaborate to ensure medical staff and front-line workers have the necessary gear to stop this pandemic. The United States is doing its part to increase supply chain input and output, including unprecedented steps to ramp up the production of key equipment such as face masks.

We encourage your country to mobilize all appropriate domestic resources to scale up production of items needed to address this outbreak, including steps to mobilize potential productive capacity. The United States has identified the following items that require scaled-up global production (see attachment).

The United States seeks to purchase additional quantities of these items if your country has any excess capacity. We are also willing to explore a mutually beneficial exchange of other materials to address COVID-19 related supplies that we have in surplus.

We would like to begin a dialogue with your country on meeting our shared urgent medical needs as quickly as possible. The U.S. Embassy point of contact for this request is Tobin Nelson, who can be reached by email at NelsonTH@state.gov or by cellular phone at 0530-781-1207.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Turkey the assurances of its highest consideration.
